
Sexual Violence Prevention

Session 10:

Sexual Violence Prevention

Goals

- Define the following sexual crimes: sexual harrassment, sexual assault, rape, and sex trafficking
- Learn about warning signs of sex trafficking

Objectives

At the end of this session, students will be able to:

- Define consent, sexual harrassment, sexual assault, rape and sex trafficking
- Discuss the importance of reporting sexually abusive behavior
- Identify resource or trusted adults to seek help from if a teen or their friend is in an unsafe situation

Anonymous Question Box

Introduction to the Anonymous Question Box:

The Anonymous Question Box is a way for students to ask questions that they may not feel comfortable asking during class time, though students are encouraged to ask lots of question during class time as well.

Anonymous Question Box Guidelines:

- Everyone must put a paper in the box. If students do not have a question at that time, they can write a statement about what they learned in class that day, a specific topic of interest, or write “no question”. This ensures questions remain anonymous.
- No Names. Questions are anonymous and are not to be used to hurt or embarrass others. Questions with names on them will not be read out loud.
- No personal questions of the instructor.
- Nobody can take anything out of the Question Box, except for the instructor.

My Body, My Boundaries

Sexual Consent

- 1) Both partners are 18 or older
(in CA)
- 2) Both partners are sober
(not drunk or high)
- 3) Both partners verbally agree
("Yes!")

Sexual Crimes

Sexual Harassment is doing or saying anything sexual that makes someone else feel uncomfortable. This includes name-calling, starting rumors, or making sexual jokes or gestures. It also includes unwanted communication like sexual comments, texts, or messages on social media.

Sexual Assault is any unwanted sexual contact. This includes physical contact like sexual touching or kissing without consent. It also includes visual contact like flashing, showing or sending sexual pictures or movies, taking photos or videos of someone naked, or making someone touch themselves in a sexual way.

Sexual Crimes

Rape is any type of sex without consent. This includes penetration of a vagina, anus, or mouth using a body part or an object.

Human Trafficking is forcing, tricking, or convincing someone to perform manual labor or sex work (doing sexual things for money, food, shelter, etc.). These crimes often involve threats and manipulation. If a person is doing sex work under age 18, it is considered sex trafficking regardless of other factors.

Scenario #1

About a month ago, I posted a video on Instagram of my favorite NBA player practicing with his team. I just thought it showed off his skill, but then a bunch of other guys from school started leaving mean comments on my page, calling me “gay” because the player was practicing with his shirt off. Now they always bring it up at school and make jokes about me being gay.

Scenario #2

I'm so afraid to go to school anymore! A few weeks ago, I broke up with my girlfriend, and to get back at me, she sent some pictures of me topless to all her friends. Now everyone at school has seen them, and this group of older girls has started harassing me. At lunch they throw food at me, and when I pass them in the hallway they call me "slut" and "whore." I don't know what to do! This happens every single day. I realize I messed up by taking those pictures, but I don't think I deserve to be treated this way!

Scenario #3

My uncle always has a lot of his friends over at our house. Last weekend, one of his close friends came up to me and told me that I'm looking really grown and sexy, and even started touching my shoulders and my butt. At first I thought it was a compliment, but it also made me feel sort of nervous. Now I'm not sure how I feel about it or if I should tell anyone what happened.

Scenario #4

My boyfriend and I have been dating for over a year now. I told him I don't want to have sex until I'm married, and he accepted that. But then, a week ago, we were alone together and got a little carried away. I allowed him to take my clothes off, but when he tried to go further, I said "Let's stop, OK? I don't feel right about this." But he didn't stop. He got on top of me and put his penis inside me. As he was doing it, I was saying "Stop!" but I didn't physically push him away. I was so shocked that he wasn't listening to me! Afterwards, I don't know if I should be mad or not. We are still together, but he doesn't even think he did anything wrong. Did he do anything wrong? I'm so confused and I've lost all my self-respect!

Scenario #5 (as a class)

I met this guy online. He added me even though we didn't have any mutual friends. At first he just sent me all these funny pictures and memes, so I sent a few as well. Then one day he sent me a private message and we exchanged numbers. We've been texting a lot since then and I really like him. He's in the same grade as me, he's really cute, we like all the same things, and he's really been there for me. A few weeks ago he suggested we meet up at the mall so he could take me shopping and get my nails done. I only told my best friend Jazmine about the meet up because he said my parents wouldn't understand. When I got to the mall I heard someone calling my name. I turned around and noticed the same guy from the pictures, but he looked like he was in college. I was nervous, but it was him so we started talking. He mentioned how beautiful and mature I look for my age. Then he handed me a gold necklace and told me he wants to officially be my boyfriend and make me happy.
